Compromise.

There is another compromise on foot in Virginia, and as it affects only Virginia City and Storey county it is a question for that section to decide. The new proposition is only a rehash of the old, and means this: "We are compelled to obey your laws—that we can clearly see—and now, having defied them and incurred penalties, we merely ask that you remit these punishments. Take off the penalties and we will now do what we should have done months ago." In support of this plea it is argued that when the original tax is paid taxes on other kinds of property can be reduced from $2 50 to 90 cents on the $100.

This is a singular illustration of the weakness which results from a use of sophistry. When the original "bulldoze" was proposed its effect was to be—according to the kingly organs—a reduction in other kinds of taxes. We said that if the just taxes of the mining companies were paid the tax could then be reduced with ease. This stamped us, in the minds of all kingly penmen, as liars and low-browed villains; but, strange to say, the people supported our view and raised their own taxes rather than submit to injustice. Law is now triumphing over defiant citizenship, and it is curious to note that in order to escape the penalty which fell upon disobedience, the monarchs are now using the arguments which defeated their previous attempt.

They have all along said that if we had compromised justice taxes could have been reduced. They now compromise their defeat by whining out, "if you will but allow us to pay your first demand, taxes can be reduced any way." But a short time since the great man who catches votes with platitudes tried to place the responsibility of high rates with the opponents of the compromise. Now his masters plainly acknowledge that their refusal to pay was the cause. Adding to this the fact that the highest power in the United States has decided that it was just to enforce these taxes, and does it not place the monopolists in a queer place?

The question, however, is for Virginia City to decide, and we have referred to the matter merely to show that our position in the premises has been correct and is now acknowledged by the compromisers themselves. It is also advisable to keep the record straight upon this question, as it will no doubt come up again next year.

A Prophecy.

Before passing to the gist of this matter we would point out to our Agricultural Society the advisability of building a pavilion. The present year has been a clear and definite statement of the magnitude which the Society is destined to reach, and the accommodations which will be required. There is no time to make improvements better than the season following great success. Strike while the iron is hot; while successful prepare for more success. When the Society shall undertake the work of building we will produce another life member, coin in hand. And now for the prophecy:

The virtues of alfalfa are not yet established by any means; the day is coming swiftly when it will be acknowledged the most profitable fodder upon which beef can be produced. Nevada soil is the very best on this coast for the production of alfalfa. Then what more natural than that the problem of beef and mutton be solved right here for this western coast? Sit down and calculate how many head of cattle and sheep you can fatten on your farm yearly; multiply this by the number of farms; make further allowance for farms yet to be, and see whether the result will not astonish you.

We believe that alfalfa means beef and mutton, and that Reno is to be the central point for supplying this coast. The point of contest between different breeds of cattle, then, and that we shall see larger exhibits of stock with every year.

The news from Turkey is a shade more favorable to the Russians. The Czar says that all Russia is "eager for the fray." The Czar deals only in sweeping assertions.

Pacheco has been awarded the seat in Congress which Wigginton wanted. "Wig" will probably contest Congress.

And now the silver bells are again before Congress. Senator Jones has the floor and will probably make his next Congressional fight over the shoulder of his pet measure. His first prominence was gained through a successful move in regard to currency, and his success as a Senator hangs wholly upon the triumph or defeat of his financial views. We hope that the Honorable M. C.'s will all bear in mind that panics every ninety days are not results of chance, but of disordered system. The country needs relief through wise action upon finance.

THE SILVER BILLS.—A Times Washington special says: The inflationists and advocates of silver will commence operations to-morrow in the House. Judge Kelly will introduce his bill providing for the repeal of the Specie Resumption Act. He will move to suspend the rules, and if he can succeed in bringing the matter before the House it is pretty certain the bill will pass. Ewing will also introduce a bill providing for the remonetization of the silver dollar of 412½ grains.

THE CASE OF ROVER.—Referring to this celebrated case, the Silver State has the following: "The transcript on appeal in the Rover case has been filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court. The case will be set for hearing some day this term. We learn that the transcript is a voluminous document and would make a large volume if printed in book form. We suppose this appeal will virtually decide the fate of Rover, and be the final winding up of this celebrated case. If the Supreme Court reverses the judgment we suppose the case will be dismissed and Rover set at liberty; if the judgment is affirmed then he has but one course left, and that is to appeal to the Board of Pardons; but from the indications of the present temper of that Board, and under its new departure, he can not have much hope for clemency from that quarter."

BANQUET TO GOV. BRADLEY.—The good people of Winnemucca gave Gov. Bradley a banquet on Saturday night last. The Silver State said wine and wit flowed freely, and toasts and speeches were indulged in to a late hour when the company dispersed with three rousing cheers for Governor Bradley, the noblest work of God—an honest man. The company represented all shades of politics; but for the time differences of opinion were forgotten, and a more social gathering has never been seen in any community. Humboldt county, in common with all others, favors the Governor's course on the compromise. The Silver State does, also, sometimes.

A LUCKY JOURNALIST.—J. F. Sheehan, of the Sacramento Bee, for years a painstaking journalist, has at last ceased from troubling and is at rest. An aunt of long standing lately passed out and left him all of her property, good will and fixtures. Sheehan carries the fixtures about with him and the tears run down his manly visage at the thought of the aunt who faded away with a dying request which it would have been his pride to gratify. Some men are not grateful but Sheehan is not of these.

HOME FROM THE FAIR.—Nearly all who attended the Reno Fair from this section returned yesterday and to-day. Some went through on the races, others got away with sufficient to pay their way home. Humboldters lost heavily on Ballot Box, and changing riders on Sooner "busted" several Eureka and Renoites, who had arranged to have him beaten.—Silver State.

"Let me see," says the nurse of a sick man, "the doctor said one teaspoonful every ten minutes; that makes six every hour, say seventy-two during the night. I shall give him seventy-two right away, and have a chance to get a little sleep myself."

Some men never take a joke. There was an old doctor, who, when asked what was good for mosquitoes, wrote back: "How do you suppose I can tell unless I know what ails the mosquito?"

A saloon-keeper named his resort "Nowhere," so that when his married customers went home late, and their wives wanted to know where they had been, they could safely tell the truth.

A religious paper says that it makes a man purer and better to cherish a rejected love. There is more fun, however, in going off and making love to another girl.

"Gone to my husband's funeral; will be back in thirty minutes," is the notice on the office door of a lady lawyer in Oregon.

WANTED.—A good girl to do general housework in a family of two. Wages, $25 per month. Apply at Mrs. Hobart's, one block east of the Court House. 10-11f

Go down to Yankee Dodge's and get five good cigars for 25 cents. 6-8tf

SLAVERY IN ENGLAND.—England is the center of a vile and barbarous trade in slaves, and Italians are the traders. The slaves are poor Neapolitan children of tender age, lent out to hire for a term of years or sold for a certain sum of money to Italian "padroni," who import them into England, to depots established in London, Bradford, Worthing, Liverpool and other towns, from whence they are distributed throughout the country and exhibited in the public streets of our cities and towns to plead for the money which eventually finds its way into the pockets of their employers. The poor children can speak nothing but Italian, and they are therefore unable to tell of their wretchedness but to padroni themselves. Their homes are the lowest, where the only companionship is that of thieves, and, of course, they grow up without education. They are made to walk from Italy to England, through France, earning their bread by dancing and singing. Several deaths from exhaustion and fatigue have lately been discovered. The Charity Organization Society has been appointed to inquire into this nefarious system of trade, and the report states that there has been a great increase in the importation of little Italian girls in the past few years. The children are taught to play on musical instruments, and to ply for alms at street corners. The picturesque costumes and piteous faces of the little girls who play tambourines, etc., almost compel people, who at other times are generally averse to indiscriminate charity, to supply them with money, of which, by their gesture and appearance, they seem to be in great need. If these kind hearted people knew the result of their mistaken generosity there would be a rapid decline in the barbarous trade.—Cassell's Magazine.

WHERE A GOVERNOR GOT HIS WIVES.—Claiborne F. Jackson, a native of Kentucky, was once Governor of the State of Missouri. He joined the Southern Confederacy, and died during his term at a farm house opposite the city of Little Rock, among strangers, with no kind hand of affection near to soothe his pain and rob his deathbed of half its anguish. The most remarkable fact connected with the history of his life is perhaps the statement that he married five sisters in one of the most respectable, wealthy and distinguished families in the State; that as soon as one wife would die he would go and marry her sister in reasonable time. Of course, some of them were widows when he married them. In connection with the marriages there was a standing joke told at the expense of the Governor, which was that when he went to ask the old gentleman's consent to marry the last one the venerable father is reported to have said: "Yes Claib, you can have her. You have got them all. For goodness sake don't ask me for the old woman."

TO THE RANCHER.—The Banner Mill Company, of Boca, Cal., have determined to make a specialty of fencing, and with that view offer to the ranchers of Washoe county a superior article of Red Fir, acknowledged to be the best lumber in any market for the purpose named. The price will be found another inducement in comparison with other varieties. Address, Banner Mill Co., or R. P. M. Greeley, Boca, Cal. No other mill company this side of the mountains has this variety of lumber for sale. 6-8tf

Corner of Second and Virginia st. Reno. 10-11f

WINTERMANTEL'S.—The attention of the reader is called to the comfortable hotel and restaurant of Louis Wintermantel, on Center Street, near the Depot. The best of accommodations are offered to travellers. Also the El Dorado Saloon, opposite the hotel, where the pleasure seeker will find shooting galleries, ten pin alleys, billiard table and bagatelle. The El Dorado is well arranged for the comfort of guests, and the best of wines, liquors and cigars are kept constantly on hand. If you are looking for a quiet and comfortable place in which to pass an hour, go to the El Dorado, and good attention is guaranteed. 10-11f

 [Should anyone discover an error in the above list of premium awards, he or she will confer a favor by calling our attention to the error.]
 MALICIOUS.—Last night some malicious wretch badly mutilated the fine open top buggy of W. T. Warren & Son, carriage makers, of Virginia City, by cutting it with a knife. Mr. Warren had, in the evening, put his buggy and sleigh on a platform car for shipment to Virginia City. Some tramp, probably, who had been put off the cars, knowing that the railroad company would be responsible for the damage done, took this contemptible and criminal way of getting even. He also cut the compressed air hose of the morning express train of the V. & T. R. R., making it impossible to use the air brake and necessitating the employing of brakemen. Some have thought that the buggy was hacked up by some one jealous of Messrs. Warren & Son because they received a $25 premium. We are not of that opinion and there are very few who are. Probably no one who has heard of the cutting of the brake hose of the railroad company but is satisfied that the scoundrel did his nefarious work for the purpose of injuring the Virginia and Truckee Railroad. Every wheel of the buggy was more or less cut, also the wood of the axles and the pole. The seat and its back were cut in several places and the hair stuffing pulled out and left sticking through the holes. The foot mat was even cut to pieces. The buggy was valued at $500, and was damaged in sale at least $200. Should the fellow be caught his neck would stand a good show to be suddenly lengthened, provided there happened to be a convenient crowd around.

CORRECTIONS.—In the premium list published yesterday attention is called to the following corrections: S. F. Hoole & Co., best display of medicines, perfumery of Nevada manufacture, diploma; Osburn & Shoemaker, best display of drugs, chemicals, toilet and fancy articles, trusses, shoulder braces, etc., lamps and fixtures, prescription and chemical appliances, picture frames, moulding and bird cages, medal; Mrs. Webster, not Weston, $5 and Vick's medal for best collection of room and cut flowers; Mrs. McNeeley also received a five dollar premium. Mrs. Webster, not Miss Weston, as it reads; L. P. Whiting, instead of Whitney, from Milford. Other mistakes, if any, we will correct on application. Full report of Fair awards in our next weekly.

DISTRICT COURT.—The case of Geo. Briggs vs. Con Poe Mining Co., was argued upon stipulation of facts on file and the case taken under advisement. The case of Jas. Kinkade assignee of S. S. Watson, vs. Jas. Mayberry was dismissed, costs to plaintiff. To-day the case of John Sunderland vs. Jeremiah et al was argued, submitted to the court and taken under advisement. Cases of Smith vs. Jas. Mayberry and Stuart vs. Mayberry, postponed until to-morrow. Case of C. Onillette vs. S. Baux, on trial this afternoon.

GAZETTE GOLD MEDAL.—The magnificent gold medal which we offered for the best and largest display in any department at the Fourth Annual Fair, has been awarded to Colonel Younger of San Jose, for his herd of eleven short horns. We had hoped that some Nevada man might walk away with that medal, but the Committee were unanimous in the award, and we have nothing more to say. The Colonel will wear it proudly, as he says, "at every fair between Alaska and the Gulf of Mexico."

Additional matter is crowded out by the premium list.
